Berkeley, Illinois 60163

Dear Vernon:

Thanks so much for your story on the co-operative program between Monroe Street and West Surburban. This will add to my storehouse of materials being used for the Geneva Encampment Lectures. I continue to be personally challenged by the prospects of the inner city. I hope in my preparation in the days ahead to become prepared for the challenging work in this growing field.

Thank you.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Brother Boyd:

Enclosed is a copy of the materials explaining the Harding College Missions' Seminar. I hope you can make arrangements by next year to attend one or more of these sessions along with your wife.

My sister and I thoroughly enjoyed our luncheon with you. Your wife is an extremely worthwhile person, and I am continually amazed by the unique contributions that you and your family make to the Church in Chattanooga. Thank you again for your kindness and hospitality.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
